

Civil Defence honours members with long-service presentations

Photos by S. Murphy

Members of North Cork Civil Defence gathered in the County Council offices last Friday for the presentation of long-service medals and other presentations. Pictured is the group after the presentations.

Joe O'Connor, Tadhg Hunter and Ger Sheehan have completed 40 years of service to the Civil Defence.

Peter Neville, Donal O'Regan, Rory Spillane, John Murphy, Michael Kelly and Leon Patric have completed 5 years of service to the Civil Defence.

The Hunter family has given 100 years of service to the Civil Defence. Pictured are Tadhg and Kathy with their daughters, Sarah, Karena, Shannen and Hollie.

Ger Sheehan, who has 40 years of service with the Civil Defence, receiving a presentation from Sorchá Cooney, Senior Assistant Chief Fire Officer at Cork Co. Council.

Francis Trimmm receiving a presentation from Sorchá Cooney.

Recipients of 10-year service awards, Jason McAree, Shannen and Hollie Hunter, and Terry O'Mahony.

Damien and Lorraine O'Connor have completed 30 years of service.

Sarah and Karena Hunter with John Lee, who received presentations to mark 20 years of service.